To Whom It May Concern;

Michael Bourada performed at our Christmas party in December 2012 and the performance was spectacular. The audience was involved and people really enjoyed the show. It was also very comical.

Michael was very easy to deal with in the business aspect of things and very quick to respond via email when there was a question. It was a very smooth process; he arrived on time and ready to go. Again the performance was top notch and extremely enjoyable. Speaking on behalf of myself and my co-workers, we have no hesitation in highly recommending Michael as an entertainer.

Best Regards,

Erin Corrigan
